

NEW RESOURCES

The Harvest (VT3091) Inspired by a true story, this video will give you and your group a vivid picture of the spiritual harvest in your neighborhood and around the world. This powerful presentation is excellent for Bible study groups or as a lead-in to any evangelism or mission conference. Spanish language (VT3092) is also available. (1 VHS; 17 min.; guide; Venture Media, 1998; for all ages)

The Life You've Always Wanted (VT3093; DVD0045)

In this six-session video curriculum, John Ortberg teaches participants the skills essential to "running the marathon" in the Christian life. As in a marathon, the secret lies not in trying harder, but in training consistently. Proven by followers of Jesus over the centuries, the spiritual disciplines are exercises that strengthen your endurance race on the road of growth. (1 VHS & 1 DVD; 6 sessions; Leader's & Participant's guides; for adults)

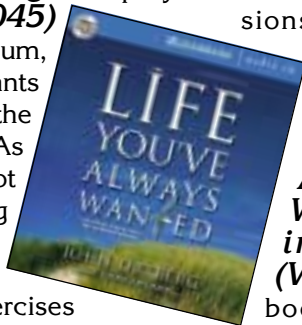

Finding Balance: Loving God with Heart and Soul, Mind and Strength (VT3099)

This six-week study will help women consider the question of balance in their lives — between service and worship, duty and devotion, doing and being by examining the lives of such New Testament women as Mary and Martha, Lydia, Mary the mother of Jesus, the Canaanite woman, and Mary Magdalene. (1 VHS; 1 DVD; 6 sessions; 15 min./session; leader's & participant's guides; Abingdon Press, ©2004; for adults)

Intercessory Prayer (VT3100-3101)

In this video study, Dutch Sheets brings clear and startling revelation on the power of prayer and the role of intercession. He unwraps the mystery of intercessory prayer, revealing our role as partners in God's work. He gives you the courage to pray for the "impossible" and help you find the persistence to see your prayers to completion. (2 VHS; 8 sessions; 30 min./session; Viewing & study guides; Gospel Light; for adults)

Avoiding Mr. Wrong And Finding Mr. Right (VT3095)

Based on the book authored by Stephen Arterburn & Dr.

Meg J. Rinck, this video helps you get past your emotions to consider the long-term impact of unhealthy relationships. While primarily addressed to single women, this resource is also a valuable tool for men to learn more about themselves and how to become a "Mr. Right." (1 VHS; 4 sessions; 15-20 min./session; Facilitator's & participant's guides; Nelson/Word; for college age & adults)

NEW YOUTH RESOURCES

Don't Sit On Your Stuff: Youth Bible Study About Giving (VT3097):

Ted & Lee, as disciples Peter and Andrew, explore Jesus' parable of the master and his three servants and lead us to a discussion of what to do with our own "stuff" — our time, money and talents. Tangled Blue and Joel & Aimee Pakan perform their original song, "Gift of Grace," bringing fresh interpretation to two stories of giving and grace — the story of Mary washing Jesus' feet with expensive perfume, and the parable of the widow who gave all of her money at the temple. (1VHS; 20min.; Study guide; Mennonite Media Productions; for Jr. & Sr. High)

The Lord's Prayer: Entering Into God's Country (VT3096)

Walter Wangerin, Jr. explores the petitions and the structure of the Lord's Prayer. Wangerin sheds light on what the Lord's Prayer reveals about God's nature and our own nature, and on how we should live in relationship with God and one another. Divided into eight segments covering each phrase of the Lord's Prayer, this video uncovers new meaning in this cherished prayer. (1 VHS; 8 segments; 65 min.; Study guide; Paraclete Video Productions; for Jr. High & up)

Big Enough For You: God's Amazing Acceptance (VT3098)

Because God has accepted you, God's Kingdom has chosen you to be a part of his special people. Explore this timeless message with youth through drama, mu-

RESOURCES ON PRAYER

How To Have A Prayer Ministry (VT0271) Dr. Wagner will help you discover new avenues of renewal, personal growth, and power in ministry. This kit addresses the topics of: The Great Prayer Movement; Prayer and Church Growth; the Gift of Intercession; Intercession for Christian Leaders; and Dynamic Corporate Prayer. (1 VHS; 60 min.; for adults)

The Prayer Path: A Christ Centered Labyrinth Experience (KT0012) Labyrinths, marked out on the floor, were a feature of many medieval cathedrals. People walked the labyrinth slowly, as an aid to contemplative prayer and reflection, as a spiritual exercise, or as a form of pilgrimage. This labyrinth is a contemporary version that includes music, meditations, art, media, and activities at stations along the path. Inspired by a spiritual tradition in Church history, this kit is a fusion of the ancient and the postmodern - a symbolic journey of prayer, self-discovery, and encountering God. (Kit includes: 2 videos; 6 CDs; participant's guide & leader's guide; Group Publishing; for Sr. High & up)

How To Pray: The Seven Circles of Prayer (VT0392) This video was introduced a seven progressive steps to help in making room for prayer in even the most hectic lifestyle: Silence, Space, Seeing, Suffering (hearing others), Touch, Listening, Face to face. This resource offers solid help to anyone to enriching their prayer life. (1 VHS; 30 min.; for adults)

Pastor's Prayer Partners Kit (VT2011-2012) This kit tells you how to set up an Intercessory Team in the church. The second video contains three elements: 1. An introduction by John Maxwell, to be viewed by the pastor and a lay leader, 2. The message, "The Pastor's MVP," to be viewed by the congregation, Sunday school class, Bible study group, etc., 3. An optional close by John which the pastor may elect to use, encouraging the viewers to become the "Pastor's Prayer Partner." (2 VHS; 30 min./video; 6 Audio-tapes; guide; for adults)

What Happens When People Pray? (VT0558-0560) This is to help people discover power in prayer, and to learn how to pray alone or with partners, groups, in triplets, on telephone prayer chains or 24-hour prayer clocks. Written and hosted by Evelyn Christenson. (3 VHS; 12 sessions; 25 min./session; for adults)

Living Prayer (VT1764) Hosted by Maxie Dunnam, this six-week study is intended to be used in a small group setting. You are asked to give 20 to 30 minutes each day to work at making prayer a living experience. The workbook is arranged in six major divisions, each to guide you for one week. These six divisions contain seven sections, one for each day of the week. A group meeting instruction appears at the end of each week's journey. (1 VHS; 60 min.; Workbook; Cokesbury; for adults)

Prayer In Motion: Leading Students In Life-Changing Prayer (VT2821) This action-based course on prayer teaches teenagers not only the basics of prayer but also focusing on the ultimate goal of prayer — unity with Christ. Use these four training sessions to help your teenagers discover how to pray effectively in all of life's circumstances and discover the power and peace prayer can bring to their lives: (1 VHS; leader's guide & student prayer journal; audio CD of worshipful music; Group Publishing; for Jr. & Sr. High)

Connecting with God (VT2957) This program takes a closer look at what prayer can be by focusing on three ways that we can connect with God — through our bodies, music, and nature. Depicting teens in real life situations, this video will expand our idea of prayer from asking God for something to include how we can not only "pray always" but also pray all ways. (1 VHS; 25 min.; for Jr. & Sr. High)

Concerning Prayer (BGPEACO) Written by Mary Kathryn, this spiritual growth study about prayer guides the reader through different types of prayer and points to role models who have become known for their skills in spiritual guidance. Maxine West provides a helpful study guide that gets people directly into the practices of prayer both individually and corporately. (1 Book; 103 pp.; GBGM - Women's Division; for Sr. High & up)
